Terms & Conditions

The Stovall Trip Program is available to commercial Stovall customers with current accounts in good standing that have not entered into settlements with Stovall on existing or previous accounts. Accounts must remain current for the entire program period through dates of travel. All enrolled customers must have a Stovall commercial account for tracking purposes. Space is limited and trips will be awarded on a first come, first serve basis, based on date of qualification. All travelers must be approved by the owner of the enrolled company and must be employed in the company business. Customers are allowed up to 2 trips per company provided the additional travelers are involved in the company business, and space is available. All travelers are responsible for obtaining any necessary travel documents such as passports or visas in advance. Stovall reserves the right to change or cancel the trip in part or full at any time and can deny enrollment for any reason. All companies that qualify and travel to Costa Rica will be issued a 1099 form as required by law.
